The Christian Year: As we begin a new calendar year let's take a moment to look at the Liturgical Year. The festivals and seasons of the liturgical calendar offer a way to order the annual life of the church according to the life of Christ and the events of salvation history. The PCUSA Book of Common Worship says, "As God created and appointed days, He created a rhythm of time and appointed seasons for worship. In the Old Testament, Jews observed seasons of fasting and feasting as occasions for festival worship of God. Jesus kept these festivals. For the Church in the New Testament, the festivals were transformed in meaning and purpose by Jesus' life and teaching, his death and resurrection, and by the gift of the Holy Spirit. Jesus' birth, life, death, resurrection, ascension, and promised return give meaning to the seasons which order the annual rhythm of worship and guide the selection of lessons to be read and proclaimed in the life of the Church.

Through two millennia of Christian worship, a cycle of festivals and seasons has emerged and is now recognized and observed throughout the ecumenical church. Some of these events (Pentecost, Holy Week and Epiphany, e.g.) can be traced to the earliest centuries of Christian practice; others (Trinity Sunday and Christ the King, e.g.) developed later in the history of the church. The church year begins with Advent.

Advent: Is a time to remember the longing for Messiah, and to look forward to His return.

Christmas: Is not just a day but a season, time set aside to celebrate of the birth of Christ.

Epiphany: (January 6) Commemorates the revelation of God incarnate to the Magi and to all people.

Lent: A season of forty days (Not including Sundays) set aside to prepare for Easter.

Holy Week: The Lord's Day before Easter begins a time of remembrance and proclamation of the atoning suffering and death of Jesus Christ.

Easter, Resurrection Day: Is the day of the Lord's resurrection and the beginning of a season of rejoicing which commemorates his ministry until his Ascension, and continues for fifty days.

Pentecost: Celebrates the coming of the Holy Spirit on the Day of Pentecost recorded in Acts.

The church also observes other days such as Baptism of the Lord, Transfiguration of the Lord, Trinity Sunday, All Saints Day and Christ the King Sunday. Book of Common Worship W-3.2002

As we worship together this year let's watch for the seasons and their themes as we see the story of Christ's life and ministry unfold week by week. FPOG Worship Committee
